Tax Credit Background*

The Inflation Reduction Act set a 30% tax credit for solar installations while creating optional adders if projects can qualify with certain criteria. The domestic content adder (DCA)adds an additional 10% bonus tax credit if the current project can claim that there is 40% or more domestic content.

According to the initial guidance provided by the IRS, projects can safe harbor the DCA and follow pre-assigned values by product categories and project types to add up to the current 40% target. Domestic content racking from Pegasus can contribute to meet the criteria required to safe harbor the DCA. Consult your Lease/PPA provider or tax advisors to determine if your project qualifies.

Pegasus supports domestic content bonus tax credit requirements with domestic content racking components. Consult your Lease/PPA provider or tax advisors to determine if your project qualifies.
